ORDER:-

In the Letter 3rd read above, the Transport Commissioner has, inter-alia, stated that Finance Department vide D.O Letter 1st read above have decided to entrust the recruitment of Transport Constables to the State Level Police Recruitment Board for uniformity of standards in recruitment at that level. Accordingly, in the G.O. 2nd read above, the Government have entrusted the recruitment work of Transport Constables by Direct recruitment to the State Level Police Recruitment Board.

2. He has stated that the Department has number of times approached the State Level Police Recruitment Board for taking up the recruitment, but the Board have not started the recruitment process so far. Several executive staff do not have Transport Constables to assist them in their enforcement work. The Transport Commissioner has, therefore, stated that it is utmost important to recruit the Transport Constables immediately. He has further stated that in the recent review meeting of the Transport Department held on 12/05/2010, the vacancy position and the huge delay by the State Level Police Recruitment Board was brought to the notice of the Hon'ble Chief Minister and it was requested to permit the Department to take up the recruitment at the District level. He has, therefore, requested the Government to withdraw the earlier orders in the G.O. 2nd read above, entrusting the recruitment of 150 Transport Constables to the State Level Police Recruitment Board and in its place entrust the recruitment process to a District level Selection Committee and the Head of the Department's level i.e., the Transport Commissioner's office. He has finally requested the Government to issue necessary orders in this regard so that the recruitment process can be initiated at the earliest.

3. After careful consideration of the matter, Government hereby withdraw the earlier orders issued in G.O 2nd read above, wherein recruitment of 150 Transport Constables was entrusted to the State Level Police Recruitment Board and in its place entrust the recruitment process to a District level Selection Committee for district level vacancies and also the Head of the Department (i.e., the Transport Commissioner's office) Level Selection Committee, for vacancies at Head of Department level.

4. Accordingly, Government hereby constitutes the following Selection Committees (for District Level vacancies of Transport Constables and Head of the Department Level vacancies of Transport Constables) with the following members:-

Selection Committee in respect of vacancies at District Level by Direct Recruitment:-

- |   |   |                    |
